RULE HEARING

17) To Adopt Amendments to Rule 237-LCC6 (Licensee Operations)

The proposed Rule encompasses an update in language, an expanded definition and use of Quantity Discounts, a clarification to the Disturbance Rule based on case law and a new section relating to common carriers and required reporting in order to adequately record the shipments of alcohol. The change in rules will aid the Commission, the Nebraska State Patrol, and local law enforcement in enforcement of the Liquor Control Act.

HEARING SET FOR: Thursday, September 7, 2023 @ 9:00 A.M.

RULE HEARING

18) To Adopt Amendments to Rule 237-LCC7-002 (Record Retention)

The proposed rule expands and clarifies the Records Retention requirement of liquor license holders in order to maintain integrity in the tax collection required by the Nebraska Liquor Control Act. It will make the tracking of purchases by the Commission and the Nebraska State Patrol more consistent and effective.

HEARING SET FOR: Thursday, September 7, 2023 @ 9:00 A.M.

RULE HEARING

19) To Adopt Amendments to Rule 237-LCC 2 (Requirements for Licensees)

These updates to Chapter 2 have a purpose of updating language but also makes a few substantive changes. The changes are a clarification regarding the legal ability to work in Nebraska, a codification of current Commission policy regarding Hardship status, and a clarification that false statements made to Nebraska State Patrol Investigators is the same as a false statement to the Commission. The proposed changes also define “seasonal licenses”, move satellite locations rules to Chapter 13, and makes changes to Special Designated license applications, and removes an older rule that is no longer needed. The proposed changes affect the regulated industry.

HEARING SET FOR: Thursday, September 7, 2023 @ 9:00 A.M.

RULE HEARING

20) To Adopt Amendments to Rule 237-LCC7-002 (Record Retention)

The proposed resolution impacts Nebraska Farm Wineries (Class Y), Nebraska Craft Breweries (Class L), and Nebraska Micro Distilleries (Class Z) license holders. It codifies all three Nebraska small producer regulations into one rule chapter and includes policy changes to implement recent statutory changes allowing limited self-distribution. Other than existing enforcement by the Commission and the Nebraska State Patrol, no additional impact upon State agencies, or political subdivisions is expected.

HEARING SET FOR: Thursday, September 7, 2023 @ 9:00 A.M.
