Dear Licensee (s):

Enclosed herewith find closing notices setting forth the dates that your licensed premises are to be closed for the sale of alcoholic liquors.

These notices must be posted by you on your main entrances to your premises and remain there during the period of time you are closed.

The law provides that you may remain open for other business on days during which the sale of alcoholic liquors has been prohibited by your suspension. However, if you are licensed as a pickle card operator with the Nebraska Department of Revenue's Charitable Gaming Division, you cannot sell pickle cards during the period of your liquor license suspension, unless you have paid a fine in lieu of such suspension. Please be advised that the Nebraska Department of Revenue has the jurisdiction to impose its own penalties regarding your pickle card operator's license. If you have any questions, please contact the Charitable Gaming Division, Department of Revenue (402) 471-5937.

You may be ordered by the Commission to complete a certified alcohol server training program. If you must complete training, please review the "Guidelines for Commission Ordered Training" insert enclosed.

Sincerely yours,
